Accommodations and Layout

Boarding from the transom, the swim platform is hydraulic to accommodate a tender. There is also a transom grill. When the platform is down, steps provide easy access for in-water activities. Stepping up from the platform, the cockpit is accessed from both port and starboard. The cockpit has u-shaped seating with an adjustable table as well as two bar stools. The remote docking station is in the cockpit to port. There is a Makefast retractable shade over the cockpit.

Through the cockpit's sliding glass door, you'll enter the yacht's interior. This door, along with the galley bar's power window, helps seamlessly merge the aft deck with the interior living spaces, creating an open and inviting atmosphere.

The galley is aft to port with full complement of appliances. There are two refrigerator drawers plus a freezer drawer. The separate icemaker is in the cockpit.

The salon/dinette is forward to port, with the helm and entertainment systems opposite. This space is beautifully appointed with luxurious furnishings, including plush Ultra-leather seating, a U-shaped dinette, and a flat-screen TV. The salon is designed for comfort and socializing, and its large side windows and sunroof provide plenty of natural light and panoramic views of the surroundings.

The helm station to starboard features state-of-the-art navigation and control systems, with glass cockpit displays and joystick docking. The double wide seats have flip-up bolsters and arm rests.

The staterooms are accessed via the forward companionway. The VIP Guest stateroom is forward and to starboard is the additional guest stateroom with double bunks. The forward head can be accessed directly from the VIP or from the companionway. The spacious full beam master is amidships with in-suite head, large hanging locker, extensive bureau storage and washer/dryer. The spacious full beam master with en-suite head and laundry is to port and amidships.
